

ANTI-SPAM POLICY ON WEBSITE

By following these user guidelines, you contribute to a secure and trustworthy trading experience with BTSFxPro.

1.0 Express Consent:

BTSFxPro is dedicated to maintaining a secure and spam-free environment for our users. We will only communicate with users who have expressly consented to receive information from us. This includes newsletters, updates, and promotional materials related to our services.

2.0 Communication Channels:

BTSFxPro will use official communication channels to reach out to users. Any communication outside of these official channels may be indicative of fraudulent activity. Users are advised to contact our support team if they receive communication requesting personal information through unofficial channels.

3.0 Information Protection:

BTSFxPro will never request sensitive personal information, such as passwords or financial details, through unsolicited communication. Users are advised to exercise caution and report any suspicious activity to our support team promptly.

4.0 Educational Content:

BTSFxPro may send educational content related to forex trading, market updates, and platform features to enhance user knowledge. Users can manage their communication preferences at any time through their account settings.

5.0 Opt-Out Options:

BTSFxPro provides users with the option to opt out of receiving promotional communications. Users can easily unsubscribe from newsletters and promotional emails through the provided opt-out mechanisms.

6.0 Regular Audits:

BTSFxPro conducts regular audits of its communication systems to ensure compliance with anti-spam policies. Any unauthorized or suspicious activities will be promptly addressed to maintain the integrity of our communication channels.

By using BTSFxPro services, users agree to abide by this Anti-Spam Policy. BTSFxPro reserves the right to update or modify this policy at any time to adapt to changing circumstances and ensure the continued security of user communications.

6.1 User Guidelines for Secure Communication with BTSFxPro

At BTSFxPro, we value your security and aim to provide a seamless and secure communication experience. To ensure your interactions with us are safe and genuine, please adhere to the following user guidelines:

7.0 Official Channels Only:

Receive communication only through official BTSFxPro channels. We will communicate with you via our official website, registered email address, and designated messaging platforms. Be cautious of unsolicited messages claiming to be from BTSFxPro through other means.

8.0 Protect Your Information:

BTSFxPro will never request sensitive information, such as passwords or financial details, through communication channels. If you encounter any such requests, consider it suspicious and do not provide any personal information. Contact our support team immediately to report the incident.

9.0 Opt-In Communication:

Ensure you have opted in to receive communication from BTSFxPro. We respect your preferences, and you have the freedom to manage your communication settings within your account. Opt-out options are available for newsletters and promotional materials.

10.0 Report Suspicious Activity:

If you receive any communication that appears suspicious or requests personal information outside of official channels, report it to our support team immediately. Your vigilance helps us maintain a secure trading environment.

11.0 Unsubscribe Options:

Take advantage of the unsubscribe options provided in our emails if you no longer wish to receive promotional communications. We respect your decision and aim to tailor our communication to your preferences.

By following these user guidelines, you contribute to a secure and trustworthy trading experience with BTSFxPro. If you have any questions, or concerns, or need assistance, feel free to contact our support team at info@btsfxpro.com or through the provided contact form.

Thank you for partnering with BTSFxPro for a secure and enjoyable trading journey.
